

YANA SVETLOVA

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Yana Svetlova is an acclaimed interior designer, decorator, and the founder of Yana Svetlova Wallcoverings, an international premium brand. A member of the Union of Designers of Russia and the Association of Interior Designers and Decorators (ADDI), she treats wallcoverings as fine art. Her work is celebrated for its exquisite hand-painted details, couture embroidery, and use of luxury natural materials like Chinese silk, sisal, and wood veneer.

Yana Svetlova graduated with honors from the Academic School of Design in 2011. She built a successful career in premium residential interior design, which naturally led her to redefine the concept of wall decorations. In 2015, she launched her own brand, Yana Svetlova Wallcoverings, which rapidly evolved from a boutique studio into an international powerhouse with representation in Moscow, Dubai, Almaty, Baku, and Tashkent.

As an artist, Yana is renowned for blending traditional craftsmanship with innovative technologies. Her signature style incorporates exquisite watercolor patterns, hand-painted panels, and couture embroidery. She prioritizes environmentally friendly, luxury bases such as fine linen, cotton, Indian silk, sisal, and natural wood veneer.

Beyond wallcoverings, Yana continuously expands her creative boundaries. She is a member of the Union of Designers of Russia and the Association of Interior Designers and Decorators (ADDI). She also co-founded Ysera Fine Jewellery, bringing her refined artistic vision to the world of high-end accessories. Her works are frequently featured in leading architectural and design publications.
